Conspiracy To Hinder The Development Of Telangana "Party Rules Should Be Adhered To - CM Revanth Reddy

Yamsani SAI State Bureau Chief Hyderabad August 24: CM Revanth Reddy said that all leaders should abide by the rules of the Congress party. When media representatives questioned Minister Konda Surekha about the issue of show-cause notices from the TPCC disciplinary committee, the CM responded. "I will not discuss the disciplinary proceedings of leaders in the party. The disciplinary committee will look into that matter. The committee will examine everything and take action," Revanth Reddy said. "Even though the Center blocked him, it did not block his goal. Why is Telangana discriminated against? Give permission to the Gujarat CM. will you stop me?" CM Revanth Reddy lashes out at the Center for not granting permission for his US visit. "An insult to the 3.4 crore people of Telangana CM is angry that Modi is acting as a brand ambassador for Gujarat." The Goal of Vikas Bharat CM Revanth Reddy lashed out at the Centre for blocking his US visit to attract investment in the name of Telangana Rising 2047. He said that giving permission to the Gujarat CM and denying the Telangana CM's visit was an insult to the 4 crore people of Telangana. He said that this is clear political discrimination and an attempt to hinder the development of the state. In the name of Vibrant Gujarat, the state Revanth recalled that the CM had held rallies in America and had traveled there for eight days for investments. He demanded that the Center explain why it had given permission to the Gujarat CM and blocked his visit. He accused Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the Center of repeatedly displaying anti-Telangana ideology. He was furious that conspiracies were being hatched to divert investments coming to the state to Gujarat. "BJP leaders have misled CM Revanth Reddy, who reached Hyderabad after completing his London tour, spoke at a media conference organized with his ministers. On this occasion, he questioned the attitude of the central government and BJP leaders. "The center's lack of cooperation with the states is against the spirit of our federation. I have planned a visit to America to attract co-operation and investment in education. After being allowed to go to Britain, the US tour the Center rejected the proposal. We have gone abroad in the past to make investments. But this time we were allowed to go to London and not to America. Conspiracy to hinder the development of Telangana. The Center's stance was criticized by Congress National President Mallikarjun Kharge, party ranks and all those who believe that the youth will benefit from promoting education, sports policies and investment policies. The Union Ministry of External Affairs rejected my visit and some party leaders in power at the Center spoke in a misleading manner and made personal allegations about the details of my visit. I do not want to talk about BJP leaders here. This is a matter related to two governments and public representatives. I wanted to remind the Center about the responsibility that governments should carry out without getting involved in political issues. Some BJP leaders misled the Center by telling lies about my official visit. "What is 'political reason'?" "There is no secrecy in my foreign trip. When I applied for this trip, I stated everything clearly. I said that I would meet famous universities and investors in America for education, sports, and investment in the state. I gave the same details for the UK and US trips. I placed the entire schedule of my trip before the Ministry of External Affairs. But, the Ministry of External Affairs replied that permission was being denied for political reasons. The Ministry of External Affairs replied that permission was not being given for political reasons. What is political reason? They said okay for the UK trip, but blocked the US trip. Is it because I am the Telangana CM? Congress CM? When a CM goes abroad, foreign ambassadors accompany him. They monitor every program. "Can't stop my goal? Even if the Center stops me, it does not stop my goal. We will organize an investment conference in Future City in December. We will explain the investment opportunities in Hyderabad. The Gujarat leadership is conspiring to stop the development of Telangana. Their goal is to stop investments from coming to our state. Everyone should condemn Gujarat's dominance over Telangana. Prime Minister Modi is acting like a brand ambassador for Gujarat. Modi wants all the investments coming to India to come to Gujarat. We will raise the issue of stopping the visit of the Telangana CM in Parliament. We will not let this go. Mardani is the mayor elected by the people of New York. He is not an anti-social force. "Shouldn't we go to America?

"Didn't Prime Minister Narendra Modi go to Pakistan and eat biryani with his friend? Shouldn't we go to America for investment? After Modi became Prime Minister, democracy has weakened. Autocracy has increased. Modi's attitude is a hindrance to the spirit of democracy. His attitude is damaging the relations between the center and the state. BRS leaders Harish, KTR and Kavitha's children are studying abroad. They are getting permission to visit America. But they are not giving permission for my visit as CM. I also studied at Harvard University. I have an invitation from America regarding agreements. "Gujarat's dominance over Telangana should be condemned. Denial of permission to Telangana CM is not a rejection of Revanth Reddy as an individual. It is an insult to 4 crore Telangana people. rejection. The reason for this rejection is Gujarat's dominance. Telangana society needs to condemn the denial of permission citing political reasons with an open voice. Preventing Telangana CM from going to America is hindering the development of Telangana. The Center is showing clear discrimination against the state. This is completely intolerable. "Everyone should condemn Gujarat's dominance over Telangana," CM Revanth Reddy urged. Deputy CM Bhatti Vikramarka, Ministers Uttam Kumar Reddy, Ponguleti Srinivas Reddy, Seethakka, and many public representatives participated in this press meet.

We Will Protect Singareni And Steer It Towards A Profitable Future NTPC Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka

Dayyala Rakesh Bhanu State Bureau Chief Hyderabad August 24 : We Will Protect Singareni And Steer It Towards A Profitable Future NTPC Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka said. Steps towards critical minerals to secure Singareni's bright future and prevent it from becoming another BSNL Singareni to expand beyond coal into gold and lithium mining. Our government's objective is to build Singareni into an organisation on the lines of "Singareni will become stronger under the able leadership of Bhatti Vikramarka: Minister Uttam Kumar Reddy." Singareni union leaders felicitate Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka for his efforts towards the company's bright future. The Telangana government's primary objective is to protect Singareni, one of the most prestigious public sector undertakings and the "soul of Telangana", and ensure that it remains a profitable organisation for future generations, Deputy Chief Minister and Energy Minister Sri Bhatti Vikramarka Mallu said. Singareni recognised, representative and officers' union leaders felicitated Deputy Chief Minister and Energy Minister Sri Bhatti Vikramarka Mallu at the Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Telangana State Secretariat on Monday, in appreciation of his leadership and support in securing crucial coal blocks and providing strategic direction for the company's bright future. "Speaking on the occasion, Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka said Singareni had suffered significant losses during the previous government's tenure due to the failure to acquire new coal blocks and the closure of existing mines. He said that, with the objective of ensuring that the company does not reach a situation where it could face closure within five or six years, Chief Minister Sri A. Revanth Reddy and the Cabinet ministers worked with determination to secure the Naini Coal Block for Singareni. He said the state government had also successfully secured the mining lease for the Tadici herla-2 Coal Block, which had been re-assigned to Singareni by the UPA government in 2013, after taking up the matter with the Centre. In addition, the government persuaded GENCO and worked to ensure that Singareni secured the Manuguru Deep Side Block-2 through the auction process. He said he had personally visited Odisha and held discussions with local public representatives to resolve issues relating to the Naini block and pave the way for its development. "The Deputy Chief Minister observed that, with alternative sources of power generation such as solar and wind becoming increasingly available across the world, demand for thermal power and coal consumption could decline in the future. If Singareni continued to depend solely on coal, there was a risk that it could fall behind like BSNL once did, he cautioned. Therefore, he said the government was encouraging Singareni to diversify into the mining of critical minerals such as copper, graphite, lithium and cobalt, in line with global developments. International consultants had been appointed to study opportunities in countries such as South Africa, Brazil, Australia and Chile, he said. He further stated that Singareni had already participated in and secured a gold mine in Karnataka through an auction. Once mining operations commence there, the mine is expected to provide Singareni with a continuous source of royalty or revenue in the future. The Deputy Chief Minister noted that Singareni currently has around 43,000 to 45,000 permanent employees, besides approximately 30,000 contract and outsourced workers. He directed the organisation

Hosting Corruption?

Where is the real fear for the corrupt empire? We will rob.. we will be caught.. we will share..We will be suspended.. but we will return to duty! Cases are nothing new for the corrupt. Rampant corruption is increasing in the state. There is no guarantee of job security for those who have done so much corruption. The ACB officials who are chasing the corrupt are hiding everything they have looted.Arts are different!It is common practice to get caught committing corruption, go to jail, and get a decent job.The state will not improve unless corruption is eradicated. Thousands of crores of rupees are being wasted in the form of corruption.are disappearingThey are embezzling public funds, they are immune to corruption but they have no branches.that corruption is becoming rampant in Telangana state. He lamented that all the corrupt people who are caught doing corruption are ruling government departments. He explained the affairs of the corrupt people in full. Even if ACB cases are dropped.. even if suspensions are imposed.. even if investigations are ongoing.. how can the corrupt people be afraid if they sit in the same chair again after years? If the officials who are supposed to protect the people's money.. are facing allegations of looting the same people's money, where is the fear in the real system? A government job is a symbol of the people's trust, the money that comes from people's taxes, funds allocated for development works, and crores of rupees released for the welfare of the poor are people's money. It is dangerous for the democratic system to be accused of corruption by those who are supposed to be the guardians of that money. In a recent table that is being circulated, a total of Rs. 4,320 crores is mentioned, showing the names of several officials, details of the assets they claim to have, and their values. These details need to be officially verified. No one can be declared guilty based on information going viral on social media. But if details of such huge assets come to light, what are their sources? How did the assets come beyond the income? Are there benami assets? Questions like these need to be answered.ACB raid.. arrest.. suspension.. what happens next?If an officer is caught in a corrupt case, the ACB registers a case. Arrest is made. SuspensionThe investigation will be over. There will be a flurry of news for a while. But what if the investigation then slows down? What if the case drags on for years? What if the final verdict is delayed?This is the real question of people.If the belief is that "if you commit corruption, you will be suspended for a while.. and then reinstated", how can corruption be stopped? Fear does not come with nonpension.. Fear comes with the final action! Suspension is usually not a final punishment. It is part of the investigation or disciplinary action. The subsistence allowance received during suspension is also based on the relevant rules. Therefore, it is not right to say that every suspended employee will definitely get 75 percent of his salary. But the question of the people is more acute. A case was registered.. a suspension was received.. the investigation went on for years.. In the meantime, a legal allowance was received.. If there is a possibility of reinstatement in the end, where does the fear of committing corruption come from?When will a corrupt person who is not afraid of an ACB case fear the law?" "When will an officer who is not afraid of suspension fear the final punishment?" "When will cases involving allegations of looting public money be resolved?"Suspension is not enough for corruption.. Legal final action is the real answer!People's money - for the people!Not for the illegal earnings of the corrupt!He advised people to learn to work to protect government institutions for public service. He warned that the main reason for the decline of government departments is the corrupt. He reminded that even the officials who claim to be honest are not able to withstand the onslaught of the corrupt. He directly denounced that the state government is showing its incompetence and is hiring people in short periods of time, which is why the rampant corruption is going on without any limits. He urged the government to permanently remove the corrupt people who are misusing public money and engaging in corruption. He said that action is being taken against the corrupt.Loot.. Catch.. Share..Don't let the situation of "wait two years, come again" arise If corruption becomes common in the system, the self-confidence of honest employees will be damaged. People will lose faith in the government. Those who commit corruption will become more emboldened. That is why registering an ACB case is only a beginning. The investigation should be completed quickly. The sources of illegal assets should be investigated. Benami assets should be identified. Bank transactions should be examined. If evidence of illegal earnings is found, legal action should be taken. If found guilty, strict punishment should be given. At the same time, the person facing the charges also has legal rights. No one should be declared guilty just because of the accusation. If innocent, justice should be done. If guilty, before the lawNo one should be spared. Are they the ones who seek public money? Or are they the ones who guide illegal earnings? Behind the signature of an official is the future of a family. Behind a tender is crores of rupees of public money. Behind a welfare scheme is the hope of poor families. Behind the construction of a road is the safety of people's lives. If such power is used for personal gain, it is not just corruption but betrayal of the people's trust. What the people want is not revenge. Not political faction. Not declaring anyone guilty without evidence. What the people want is only a transparent investigation.. a speedy trial.. an impartial decisionstrict punishment if guilty.. honorable release if innocent.This is the real question These are the officers who have amassed assets worth over Rs 100 crore Oil SridharSankireddy Bhima Reddy

Direct Voice Bureau Chief Jangoan August 24: "Widespread public awareness regarding the SIR process must be created; the process of issuing notices to voters whose details were not mapped or who have identified anomalies must be executed meticulously. State Chief Electoral Officer C. Sudarshan Reddy directed District Election Officers to conduct Gram Sabhas and Ward Sabhas across all polling station areas in the state on August 27. "On Monday, Telangana State Chief Electoral Officer C. Sudarshan Reddy held a review meeting via video conference with District Collectors and District Election Officers regarding the SIR Special Intensive Revision program. District Collector Sandeep Kumar Jha attended the meeting from the video conference hall at the District Integrated Collector Complex. Speaking on the occasion, the State Chief Electoral Officer instructed that Gram Sabhas and Ward Sabhas be organized on August 27 for all polling station areas. He stated that these meetings should be held at the respective Gram Panchayat buildings in rural areas and at the respective polling stations in urban areas. He directed officials to ensure the participation of the concerned Booth Level Officers (BLOs) and 'Chunav Pathashala' members in these meetings. He further advised creating widespread public awareness about the conduct of these Gram Sabhas and Ward Sabhas through the BLOs. Instructions were issued to keep necessary forms such as Form-6, Form-7, and Form-8 ready at the meetings. It was directed that Booth Level Officers (BLOs) read out the names of voters from the draft electoral roll during village and ward meetings and identify eligible Indian citizens whose names are missing from the list. Awareness should be created to ensure that individuals attaining the age of 18 by October 1, 2026, register their names by submitting Form-6 along with a declaration form and the required supporting documents. The public should be informed that they can apply for corrections via Form-8 if there are errors or discrepancies regarding their names or other details in the draft electoral roll. Instructions were given to identify ineligible persons listed on the roll and to facilitate the submission of objections by voters from the same constituency using Form-7. Orders were issued to serve notices to all voters identified with unmapped anomalies; these notices must clearly specify the date, venue, and time of the inquiry. to move forward aggressively to secure mining blocks anywhere in the state, the country or across the world. "He made it clear that the government's objective is to transform Singareni, an organisation with more than 100 years of experience, into a world-class institution. He called upon everyone to work collectively and contribute towards taking the company to greater heights. Irrigation Minister Sri Uttam Kumar Reddy praised Singareni for progressing rapidly under the efficient and dynamic leadership of Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka, particularly through the opening of new mines, expansion of business activities and implementation of new projects. "The Minister said the government would extend its full support to make Singareni one of the best public sector organisations in the country in the coming years. He recalled that he had praised Singareni's achievements on several platforms and described it as a prestigious organisation that every citizen of Telangana should be proud of. Speaking at the felicitation programme, Singareni Recognised Workers' Union President Sri Vasireddy Seetharamaiah, Representative Workers' Union Secretary General Sri Janak Prasad, and Officers' Association President Sri Lakshmiipathi Goud praised Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka for his efforts to secure the crucial Naini Coal Block for Singareni. They said that after the people's government came to power in the state, the Deputy Chief Minister personally visited Odisha and met the Chief Minister, local public representatives and people, convincing them and facilitating the necessary approvals for the Naini block. As a result of his efforts, production from the Naini Coal Block commenced last year, and the first rake of coal from the block was transported to Singareni this month to meet the state's energy requirements. They also praised his special efforts in securing the mining lease for the Tadicherla-2 Coal Block, which had been allocated by the UPA government in 2013. At the same time, they expressed concern that the previous BRS government had prevented Singareni from participating in coal block auctions, resulting in the company losing two crucial mines that were important for its long-term survival. They explained that, under the present people's government, Singareni was permitted to participate in coal block auctions, enabling it to recently secure the Manuguru Deep Side-2 Block. They said the government was also working with the objective of transforming Singareni from an organisation confined largely to coal production into an international mining enterprise, with a strong presence in the critical minerals sector."

They described Singareni's acquisition of exploration licences for gold and copper minerals in Karnataka as another major achievement under the people's government. The union leaders also appreciated the government's various measures for the welfare of workers. They described the distribution of bonuses to contract workers as a historic step. They said hundreds of people had benefited from the decision to increase the maximum age limit for dependent employment from 35 years to 40 years. The felicitation programme was attended by Singareni Recognised Workers' Union President Sri Vasireddy Seetharamaiah, General Secretary Sri Raj Kumar, Representative Workers' Union Secretary General Sri Janak Prasad, Senior Vice-President Sri Narsimha Reddy, Officers' Association President and Secretary Sri Lakshmiipathi Goud and Sri Peddi Narsimhulu, along with a large number of leaders of recognised, representative and officers' unions from various Singareni areas.

In The Next Election Old Faces

Revanth, Bhatti and some other seniors are strong in Congress.

Direct Voice State Bureau Chief Hyderabad August 24 "The decision on who the Chief Ministerial candidate is up to the party leadership. The 'hands' that are already making money here and there KTR, Harish Rao to become key players in BRS. "Who will be the Chief Minister between the two is in KCR's hands!" Eeta Rajender in BJP, "Only Sanjay is a truck. Will it go into full competition? Or not? doubt it!" Kavita is the only familiar face in the new TRS party. Even if the seats increase in the delimitation, will new entrants get a chance? Will the youth enter politics on their own? "Days are passing by like this. It has been two and a half years since the Congress took power in Telangana. After another two years, the heat of the assembly general elections will begin again. After another year, all the parties will have to focus on the elections. They are still busy assessing public opinion through intelligence agencies, and from the end of next year, they will indirectly open the election campaign. This time too, the main contest is likely to be between Congress and BRS. There is no way that BJP will give even a minimum contest. Meanwhile, in the next elections too, only the faces of old leaders will be seen. Even if new faces appear, it must be said that the sons and relatives of senior leaders are at fault, and there are few opportunities for others. Although all political parties want the youth to enter politics, in the end, only their forces are entering the field. Moreover, since elections are held on the basis of crores and votes, it is clear that the youth are not paying attention to politics. "KCR has cut out BRS. Another major political party in Telangana is BRS. This party, which emerged from the desire for a separate state movement, ruled the state for two terms. Although it turned farmers and some sections of people into a vote bank with some schemes, but the people, fed up with the behavior of local leaders, sidelined BRS from power. Even though some winning leaders also went astray with the party's defeat, it can be said that the strength of the party has not been damaged anywhere. Now, KCR is the leader of this party, followed by KTR and Harish Rao. Although the root of the party is KCR, the camps of Harish Rao and KTR have different opinions. It is normal for KTR, who is currently the party's working president, and Harish Rao, who is the assembly floor leader, to contest in the next elections. And who else has a chance in the next elections? "Congress is a puppet of Indira."

Indira's image. However, there is a doubt about who the chief ministerial candidate in the party will be. While Congress won the majority of seats in the 2024 elections, everyone is arguing that Revanth Reddy unexpectedly became the CM, and will he get the chance this time? Or not? It depends on the decision of the party leadership. Although the senior leaders of that party are serious on the surface, there is no lack of publicity that Revanth Reddy is reluctant to become the CM. Will the Congress leadership once again select Revanth Reddy as the CM candidate in this order? Or is it a bit doubtful? Otherwise, Congress is also known as the party of the elderly. There is a high chance that they will play a key role in the next elections too. Age bar leaders like Mallu Bhatti Vikramarku Komatireddy Brothers, Uttam Kumar Reddy, are already preparing their platforms for the contest. If time permits, they will not hesitate to indulge in covert politics to bring their family members into the fray. Meanwhile, some Congress leaders and their family members are already spending money in some constituencies. They are preparing to dominate by targeting their own party leaders. They are leading to political debate. That is KCR must know in his own mind that he will get it. In the last election, he gave tickets to old faces and stagnated in some places. However, will he be careful not to do that in the next election? Will he give tickets to old people again because they stuck with the party when it was not in power? It remains to be seen. How the people will welcome this decision is also doubtful. Overall, there is a high chance that BRS will field new roses by the next election. "BJP's empty speeches The BJP, which claims to be an alternative to the Congress in the country, is not able to stand up to the main parties in Telangana, which is a political and social debate. It has not been able to give a strong contest in any of the two elections held since the formation of Telangana. There is also a campaign that the party is somehow short of candidates. There are opinions about the BJP as being limited to towns and cities. At the state level, except for Union Ministers Kishan Reddy, Bandi Sanjay Kumar, who unexpectedly came to the fore, and Etala Rajender, who joined the BJP from BRS, there is no other recognized leader in the party. It must be said that they are also limited to their respective areas and apart from making noises in press meetings that the government will be our party in the next elections, there is no action taken to strengthen the party. There are arguments that even the few leaders here and there in the districts are not close to the people, and that they are showing arrogance by carrying the BJP's leadership flaws like a tumor in their stomach with leaders who change parties at the end, hoping for a ticket during the election. In the next elections too, the names of Kishan Reddy Bandi Sanjay Kumar Etala Rajender, and two or three other leaders may be in the front row. Even if new people are found, will they win? Or not? The people themselves should know. The party that emerged unexpectedly in Telangana is TM S. Although it has been newly formed under the name of Telangana Defence Force. The party is a part of the pink party. The rumors are being revealed. Due to family feuds, BRS leader KCR's daughter Kalva Kuntla Kavitha left the BRS like Pulltulla. After that, while making many allegations of corruption against relatives in the party, reciting Pancha Sutras as if she was a pattuveera, BRS was born and a new party was formed under the name TRS. Even after winning the first election after the formation of Telangana, losing the second time, finally, Kavitha got the opportunity to become an MLC due to the party's turmoil. Kavitha, who was caught in the Delhi liquor case, somehow got out on bail, raised the flag of rebellion against the family itself. Will the people support Kavitha, who has been following the new flag and agenda, in the next elections? Or not? It remains to be seen. In the meantime, who are the leaders in that party? Who are the activists? What is the strength? What is the strength? There are still no publicly announced records. Will the people welcome Kavitha, who left her politically ambitious father and the party that was like her birthplace, to leave the ground and join the Samu? Or not? It remains to be seen. Chance of increasing assembly seats There has been a rumor going around for some time that the next general elections will be held simultaneously for the Parliament and the Assembly. The campaign is going on that there will also be a re-division of constituencies in the same order. If that happens, political leaders estimate that there is a possibility of another 20 to 25 seats being added to the current 119 seats in Telangana. While the leaders of the main parties are already spending money for the current seats, it is doubtful who will contest in the seats that are likely to increase. Will they give a chance to the family members and relatives of the seniors? Or will they bring a new generation of youth into the field? It is doubtful. Otherwise, almost hereditary politics is continuing in the country. Although the youth want to enter politics in large numbers, many youth are reluctant to even vote. If the new generation is allowed to speak in the next elections, then again.

Without Running For Positions In Politics.. If You Trust The Party And Work, You Will Be Recognized

Telangana State Mahila Congress President and former Warangal Mayor Errabelli Swarna

Direct Voice STATE Bureau Chief

Hyderabad August 24 : Telangana State Mahila Congress President and former Warangal Mayor Errabelli Swarna said that positions will come automatically. She shared the experiences, ups and downs of her political career and the work she did for the development of Warangal in a chat with digital media representatives. She explained how she unexpectedly got elected as the PACS Chairman, contested as an MLA candidate and finally took charge as the Mayor of Warangal. She said that during her time as Mayor, Rs. 178 crore funds were brought to the city and development works were undertaken according to the needs of the people. Recalling his association with YS Rajasekhara Reddy, he got emotional and said, "I don't have any elder brothers. YSR is my elder brother." He clarified, "I don't have party scarves. I am the scarf of the party. There is no retirement in politics. I will work for the Congress as long as I have patience." He said that he is moving forward with the aim of involving women in the party's activities in large numbers, keeping in mind the upcoming elections. "Childhood in Karimnagar. Marriage at the age of 19 Swarna said that her hometown is Patagudur in Choppadandi mandal of Karimnagar district. She said that her father Hanmantha Rao practiced as a lawyer and later worked as a contractor. Her mother is Jayalakshmi. She said that she grew up in Karimnagar town with her elder sister, younger sister and younger brother. She recalled that she studied in Karimnagar till intermediate, but she could not continue her studies after getting married while she was in the second year of intermediate. She said that she got married through an introduction to Varada Rajeshwar Rao, a friend of her elder sister's husband. She said that there was some objection at home as Rajeshwar Rao was not doing any job at that time, but she said that he was a good person and arranged a marriage. She recalled that if her grandfather had any objection to the relationship, she should have said 'no' before him. However, she said that she liked Rajeshwar Rao and that he liked her too, so she got married. "No real contact with politics" Swarna said that her family did not have a political background. She recalled that there was no situation where women would even come out of the closet. She said that after her marriage, she received a lot of respect from her in-laws. Her in-laws said that there is a tradition of treating their daughters-in-law like daughters-in-law. Her mother-in-law, Kulasekhar Rao, said that Lakshmi Devi treated her like her own child. She recalled that no matter how busy they were in their old age, they would take care of them in the evenings, and that they would also take good care of their sisters-in-law and other daughters-in-law. She said that the respect she received from her in-laws also provided her with the opportunity to advance politically. "It was our people who taught us political Onam." Swarna said that her entry into politics was very unexpected and happened without her involvement. She said that her husband Varada Raje Swar Rao taught her political skills. She said that her uncle Kulasekhar Rao encouraged her to come forward politically in every way. Varada Rajeshwar Rao used to work as the president of the Youth Congress. She recalled that when Sanjay Gandhi came at that time, she made a lot of eggs and took it to the railway station. "Unexpectedly, he became the chairman of PACS." Swarna said that she never thought she would enter politics. She said that when the Vardhannapet PACS Chairman elections came up, her uncle suggested that she should contest. She said that since her children were young, she first asked how she could enter politics. However, she said that her uncle Kulasekhar Rao and her husband Varada Rajeshwar Rao insisted on making her contest. She said that she won with a huge majority even though she went to campaign for only one day. She said that she first took charge as PACS Chairman in 1991. Later, during the TDP era in the state, she contested for the post of ODCMS Director and won that election too. However, she expressed her regret that when the chairmanship was needed, the post was lost because a person from her own party gave her a hand. She said that Beeram Sanjeeva Reddy won as the chairman at that time. "We are a Congress family." Swarna clarified that her family has been with the Congress since the beginning. She said that although she has good personal relations with leaders of all parties, she has not left the Congress politically. She said that her family was invited to join the party by various parties, but they did not go. She said that KCR also invited her to join the party, but she did not leave the Congress. "No matter how many problems we face, we are in the Congress. Whether we have positions or not, our journey with the party has continued. Our entire life has been with the Congress party," she clarified. First MLA elections.. Defeat by 10 thousand votes "Swarna recalled receiving a call from Gandhi Bhavan in 1985 that Varada Rajeshwar Rao had been given an MLA ticket. He said that he did not fully understand what a ticket meant at that time. He said that Varada Rajeshwar Rao was not known to anyone politically at that time, he was only known as the grandson of Madhav Rao. He said that he lost in that election by a margin of about 10 thousand votes. "Bonding with the people only after defeat Swarna said that Rajeshwar Rao started going to villages at 7 am the day after he lost the election. He said that he had formed a strong bond with the people by greeting everyone and knowing their hardships. He said that when the elections came again, Rajeshwar Rao got a ticket. However, Swarna said that there was a huge fraud in that election. He said that he had given B-form first, but the day before the elections, Macharla Jagannadham was declared as the candidate. He said that Rajeshwar Rao also got a hand mark when he filed his nomination with B-form. He said that he finally lost by a margin of about 5 thousand votes as there were two candidates within the party. T. Rajeshwar Rao won. He said that he suffered a serious blow politically with that election. "MLA enters the fray with YS's call." Swarna said that YS Rajasekhara Reddy recognized his family working for the party regardless of their positions. He said that while the review meetings were being held by the assembly constituencies, he called him to arrange a review of the five constituencies in Wardhannapet. He said that DCC President Cherukupalli Srinivas Reddy and her husband Rajeshwar Rao were with YS. He recalled that YS had called him at that time and said that he would give you a ticket in the next elections and that you should contest. He said that YS had assured him that whoever contested in the then political situation would suffer losses for the party and that he would take care of it even if he lost. He said that the ticket was given as he had said. Swarna said that he had campaigned fiercely even when Dayakar Rao was already a strong leader. He said that a huge public meeting was organized with YS Rajasekhara Reddy in Teegarajupalli and that people had gathered there to the extent that sand could not be poured. He alleged that the singer and her sons were beaten up in an attempt to defeat the assembly. Swarna alleged that two days before the elections, she had a meeting with rival candidate Dayakar Rao Chandrababu Naidu and that several conspiracies were hatched to defeat her. He said that in the constituency where it was difficult to get deposit votes, she finally lost by a margin of just 4,000 votes. "The mayor's announcement.. is a war" Swarna said that despite losing the MLA elections, she was committed to the promise made by YS Rajasekhara Reddy. After the Congress government came to power as the Chief Minister of YSR, the Warangal municipal elections were held in 2005. She said that she contested only as a corporator in that election and won. However, there was already a fierce competition for the post of mayor in city politics. She recalled that the wives of two key leaders in the contest had also campaigned at that time as mayoral candidates. She said that she had not campaigned for the post of mayor anywhere. She said that after the elections, she met YS Rajasekhara Reddy along with her husband Varada Rajeshwar Rao. She said that she got the post of mayor due to her family's close association with YSR and his enthusiasm. She said that despite having strong competitors, YS kept his promise and made her the mayor. However, Swarna recalled that the day he was announced as the mayor of Warangal, a situation that amounted to a major battle broke out at the municipality. "Rs.178 crore funds." "Swarna said that his efforts in the development of Warangal city during his tenure as mayor were immense. He said that he had brought in funds of Rs. 178 crores at an unexpected level and undertaken many development works. He said that the then Union Minister late leader Jayapal Reddy had cooperated 100 percent in bringing in those funds. He said that priority was given to the development and expansion of main junctions, drinking water supply and development of slum areas. He said that he had worked satisfactorily for the development of the city during his tenure. He said that with the support of the then Chief Minister YS Rajasekhara Reddy, he had decided to empower women financially. He said that interest-free loans were provided to Dwakra groups with the aim of making women millionaires. "Special connection with Wardhannapet Swarna said that her family has a special connection with the Wardhannapet constituency. She said that her family stands by any activist who faces difficulties. She said that her political strength lies in maintaining good relations with the people and activists. "For the party's victory together with Revanth.. "Swarna said that Revanth Reddy met her family in Warangal during the

padayatra. She said that they are a Congress family and that the party will have the respect they had in the past, that this election is the last chance for the Congress and that if they lose, there will be no future and they asked her to work for the victory of the party. She said that she worked for the victory of the party as per his instructions. She said that even after being given the responsibility of in-charge in Karimnagar, she worked for the party. She said that Revanth Reddy did not ask for any post even after becoming the Chief Minister. However, she said that she was appointed as the Warangal District Congress President in 2023, recognizing her work I didn't get a ticket, but I wasn't disappointed." Swarna said that she had hoped to get a ticket from Warangal. However, due to unexpected political developments, she was given a ticket after Konda Surekha came. She said that she was not upset even though she did not get a ticket. She said that her party recognized her services and entrusted her with the responsibility of the state Mahila Congress president. She said that she was in Australia when the announcement was made. "Swarna clarified that she is not a family that expects positions just because she works for the party. She said that if she works with commitment to the party, positions will come automatically and she said that she has not asked for any position so far. She said that she has been serving the party for about five decades and her journey with the Congress continues regardless of whether she has positions. She said that after taking charge as the State Mahila Congress President, she has already visited 20 districts and worked hard to strengthen the party. She said that she is working tirelessly for women's welfare and development. She said that she is working with the aim of making women more active participants in party programs. She said that she is completing the formation of mandal committees and is increasing the participation of women in the upcoming elections and preparing them to be at the forefront in the campaign. She said that her main goal is the victory of the Congress in the GHCMC and GWMC elections. "My brother is YSR.. I am the leader of the party Swarna Bhavo said with emotion that she does not have any elder brothers and considers YS Rajasekhara Reddy as her elder brother.

SEMINAR ON "WHEN AI MET LLMS" CONDUCTED AT CHAITANYA BHARATHI INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Hyderabad: A technical seminar titled "When AI Met LLMs" was successfully organized by the Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering (ECE), Chaitanya Bharathi Institute of Technology (CBIT), Hyderabad, in association with the IEEE Signal Processing Society (SPS) and IEEE Student Branch Chapter at the N Block Seminar Hall. The seminar featured Ashish Pandharipande, Technical Director at NXP Semiconductors and part-time Full Professor at Eindhoven University of Technology, Netherlands, as the resource person. With extensive experience in both industry and academia, he provided students with valuable insights into the rapidly developing fields of Artificial Intelligence (AI), Large Language Models (LLMs), and Edge AI. During the session, Pandharipande explained how LLMs are transforming various domains through large-scale training datasets and powerful computational resources. He highlighted their advanced reasoning and knowledge capabilities, while also discussing challenges such as high computational requirements, energy consumption, and latency. These limitations can be significant for real-time and safety-critical applications. The speaker emphasized the growing importance of Edge AI, which enables intelligent processing closer to the data source. He explained its advantages in terms of low latency, energy efficiency, and real-time decision-making, particularly for embedded and IoT applications, autonomous systems, robotics, and intelligent devices. A major highlight was the discussion on integrating the strengths of LLMs and Edge AI. Cloud-based LLMs can provide sophisticated reasoning, while edge devices can deliver rapid perception and response. Their integration can enable efficient, responsive, and intelligent systems for future applications. Prof. C. V. Narasimulu, Principal, CBIT, appreciated the initiative and encouraged students to strengthen their technical and research skills. Prof. N. V. Koteswara Rao, Director, IQAC, emphasized exploring emerging AI technologies for research and industry. Dr. K. Vasanth, Head, ECE, highlighted the importance of interdisciplinary skills and real-world applications. Dr. T. Sudhakar Babu, IEEE CBIT Branch Counsellor, appreciated the initiative and emphasized the value of expert interactions. Dr. T. Aravinda Babu and Dr. D. Nagadevi, IEEE CBIT SPS SBC Advisors, encouraged students to pursue research, innovation, and practical applications in AI, signal processing, and intelligent systems. Traffic measures Should Be Taken For The Safety Of Students Work in Coordination For Traffic Control Traffic regulation is a must during school hours

Rakam Radhika Bureau Chief Warangal August 24 "Warangal Police Commissioner N. Shwetha and Baldia Commissioner T. Venkanna have instructed the officers to take special measures to prevent any traffic accidents while Warangal Public School students are coming and going to school. "To this end, on Monday, they visited the field level from Warangal Public School to Raj Hotel along with the officers of the Police, Baldia, Roads and Buildings departments and personally inspected the traffic conditions. They paid special attention to traffic safety in areas where a large number of students, parents and school vehicles move around, especially during the beginning and ending hours of the school. The officers examined issues such as taking necessary measures to control the speed of vehicles so that there is no problem while students are crossing the road, regulating traffic to prevent congestion, and controlling unnecessary cross moments. " They also examined the dividers in the middle of the road and discussed measures such as closing the divider openings in areas where students and pedestrians are likely to cross the road illegally and keeping openings only at necessary places. They also examined issues such as parking of vehicles in the vicinity of the school, movement of school buses, traffic control during peak hours, etc. The officials suggested that the safety of the students be the main goal and necessary measures should be taken in a coordinated manner to control traffic in the vicinity of the school. They clarified that instead of reacting after accidents occur, areas prone to accidents should be identified in advance and preventive measures should be taken. In addition to increasing the supervision of the traffic police during school hours, the relevant officials were instructed to take barricades and traffic control measures in necessary areas. They suggested that students, parents and school staff should be made aware to follow traffic rules. Additional DCP Prabhakar Rao, DCP Central Zone Dhara Kavitha, ACP Traffic T. A New Political Challenge

Yamsani Srinivaas - Senior Journalist

Internal politics have once again come to the fore in Andhra Pradesh politics. The latest comments made by former YSR Congress Party leader Vijayasai Reddy have sparked a debate in political circles. Vijayasai, who was once very close to YS Jaganmohan Reddy and played a key role in party politics, has now become politically significant by making sharp criticisms of the same leadership. Vijayasai's comment that "Jaganmohan Reddy is an incompetent opposition leader" cannot be seen as a simple political criticism. Because these words are not coming from an outsider, but from a former key leader who has worked with the YSRCP since its inception. Questions on the role of the opposition leadership are even more crucial for the opposition party after the defeat in the elections. It is the responsibility of the opposition to highlight public issues to the ruling party, question the government's decisions, and create alternative political confidence among the people. In this context, Vijayasai's comments on Jagan's leadership raise new questions about the YSRCP's political strategy. "Vijayasai criticized the opposition for not responding to the expected level when the ruling party was to be questioned on the issue of law and order in the state. This is a politically embarrassing issue for the YSRCP. I'm feeling overwhelmed and unable to express myself... What is the real sign? Vijayasai's comments reflect not only political dissatisfaction but also the anguish she has experienced. A debate has started as to whether there is a future political strategy behind a person who has been close to Jagan for years now publicly criticizing him. "At the same time, the comment "I have no hatred for anyone... There are no permanent enemies or permanent friends in politics" is generating more interest. The question for political observers now is whether this is a sign that the door has been left open for future political equations. What is the impart of the new party on the YSRCP vote bank? Another key development is the announcement by Vijaya Sai that she is taking steps towards forming her own political party. Will the new party remain just another political organization? Or will it try to emerge as an alternative to the YSRCP? It remains to be seen. "However, Vijayasai's understanding of YSRCP's internal affairs, party structure, leadership style, and political equations from Uttaranchal to the coast is likely to give the new party some political strength. At the same time, it will not be easy to sustain a new party without party structure, cadre, popularity, financial resources, and strong local leadership. Is this a warning to YCP? The key question now is how seriously the YSRCP leadership takes Vijayasai's criticism. A former key leader openly targeting the party chief will lead to a debate within the cadre. This development could further increase political pressure when discussed

Medical Authorities Crack Down on Scanning Centres and Hospitals in Nizamabad

State Bureau Chief M.A. Samad Nizamabad, August 24, 2026 "The Nizamabad District Medical and Health Department has intensified its enforcement drive against scanning centres, clinics and hospitals allegedly violating prescribed medical regulations. As part of the drive, a team led by District Medical and Health Officer (DM&HO) Dr. Rajashree conducted surprise inspections at several medical establishments in Nizamabad city and detected a number of irregularities. "Following the inspections, officials issued show-cause notices to the managements of the establishments concerned and warned that strict action would be taken if the violations were not satisfactorily explained or rectified. "During the inspection of PTS Scanning Centre on Bodhan Road, officials examined the records and functioning of the centre and found deficiencies in the maintenance of the OP register and Form-F records. "The inspection team reportedly found that the required records were incomplete and were not being maintained in the prescribed manner. The DM&HO also expressed strong displeasure over the unhygienic conditions noticed around the hospital premises. "Officials further found that referral forms were allegedly being issued through persons who were not medical professionals. The practice was viewed seriously by the inspection team as it was contrary to the prescribed procedures. "The centre was also found to be failing to comply with provisions applicable under the Clinical Establishments Act. In view of the irregularities, officials served a show-cause notice on the management and sought an explanation. "At another clinic located in Ahmedpur Colony, the inspection team detected a different violation. Officials found that a Unani doctor was allegedly providing allopathic treatment, which is not permissible under the applicable medical regulations. "The DM&HO expressed serious displeasure over the alleged practice and directed the concerned authorities to take the matter seriously. "The officials also noticed a board at the clinic claiming that services of paediatric and gynaecological specialists were available. According to the inspection team, the display was contrary to the applicable rules and could potentially mislead patients. "The board was immediately removed by the officials, while a show-cause notice was issued to the clinic management seeking an explanation for the violations. "The inspection at Hayath Hospital on Bodhan Road brought to light several more irregularities. "Officials found that the hospital did not have a proper parking ramp, raising concerns regarding the facilities available at the establishment. "The inspection team also examined the hospital's documentation and found that a digital signature was reportedly being used even when Dr.

Kavya was not physically present at the hospital. Officials also observed that the OP register was being maintained by persons who were allegedly not qualified to maintain such medical records. "The most serious issue detected during the inspection related to the maintenance of the MTP (Medical Termination of Pregnancy) register. "According to the officials, as many as 51 operations conducted from May 2025 until the date of inspection had not been recorded in the MTP register. The lapse was viewed seriously by the DM&HO, who expressed strong dissatisfaction with the hospital management and issued a show-cause notice. "The District Medical and Health Department made it clear that medical establishments cannot compromise on statutory requirements or patient safety. "Officials stated that regular maintenance of OP registers and other mandatory records, proper documentation of MTP procedures, qualifications and scope of medical practice, referral procedures and the physical presence of doctors would be closely monitored. "The department warned that establishments found repeatedly violating the rules could face further action as per the applicable regulations. "The inspection drive was aimed at ensuring that scanning centres, clinics and hospitals maintain proper standards and provide medical services strictly within the limits prescribed by law. "AO Sumanth Kumar, Supriya, Ramakrishna, Keerthana, DHE Venugopal, Nagaraju and other district medical officials participated in the inspection drive.
