Referring to the declaration of 2023 as the International Year of Millets, he highlighted their nutritional value and relevance to small and rain-fed farmers. He appreciated a nutritious millet-based food product showcased during the exhibition and encouraged students to explore innovation and entrepreneurship. Loss of Rs. 5 lakh Crore Annually "Trump Fires on Canada"

Dayyala Rakesh Bhanu Bureau Chief Canada
September 1: The trade war between the United States and Canada is escalating day by day. Relations between the two countries are deteriorating as US President Donald Trump, including Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney, and other leaders respond strongly to his comments. In this context, Trump once again lashed out at the country. Stating that he does not want anything from Canada, he suggested that all companies there should move to the United States to avoid its tariffs. He called the country a cruel and evil practice. He posted a series of posts to this effect on Truth. "At the same time that I announced that I was running for president in 2024, Ford was ready to close a key factory in Detroit. The company waited to see what would happen when I took the lead in the election. Now it is running continuously..It is making huge profits. There are many such examples in the case of General Motors and other companies. All this happened because of the tariffs. We do not want anything, including Canadian cars and equipment.

The US loses more than 60 billion dollars (over Rs. 5.7 lakh crore) annually in trade with Canada. This exploitation has been going on for decades. All the businesses that were once taken from us are now lining up in America to avoid the tariffs. Past governments have failed to take a tough stance on Canada," Trump criticized. The US-Canada trade agreement was canceled at the last minute. While the US has already hit back with 50 percent tariffs.. It is known that Canada has also recently imposed retaliatory tariffs on the superpower. Trump has imposed 50 percent tariffs on Canadian cars, trucks, automotive parts, and steel imports.

Natural Disasters - What Is The Responsibility?

Words are not enough to describe the devastation and tragedy of Nepal. In this time of sorrow, let us review the plight of the rest of the world. Natural disasters have existed since the beginning of creation. Many living things have lost their survival due to these disasters. In this evolution of millions of years, geographical features have also changed many times. Since the beginning of human existence, migration has been taking place as a part of life. Villages, towns, and cities were formed that way. The relationship between man and water is inseparable. Modern civilization and culture took root in the river basins, where settlements were established near streams, bends, canals, ponds, wells, gardens, forests, rivers, seas, hills, valleys, and hills. As civilization developed, urban and city structures gained momentum. Migration from rural areas to urban areas has increased for education, jobs and employment. As part of this progress, villages have become towns, towns have become cities and cities have become metropolises. Population, population density, vehicles, industries, businesses, entertainment centres, schools and offices have increased innumerable times. Technology has increased, literacy has increased. Human needs have increased. Hope, greed and avarice have also increased significantly from needs. Urban development plans have not increased accordingly. There is no thought of tomorrow except for the comfort of the day. Due to these reasons, whenever there are rains, storms and floods, the problems only increase and do not subside. Whether it is the metropolis of Hyderabad or the villages of Andhra Pradesh, the situation is the same. The same difficulties, the same tears. The same problems are faced in Mumbai, Chennai, Hyderabad and Vijayawada. Idchu, Pobas and crops are being washed away in the flow of water. After the development of meteorology, technology, transportation, and communication, the loss of life has decreased somewhat, but the hardships have not decreased at all, but are increasing. The reasons for this should be considered human errors. These difficulties are being faced due to the construction of ponds, ponds, wells, gardens, and low-lying areas, and the rapid growth of settlements. All these are being occupied and construction is being carried out. 100 people live where there should be 10. The changing urban landscape, Peru is not setting up a drainage system that suits us. The same trend continues in new developments. In the name of household needs, due to the granting of real estate permits indiscriminately, etc., people are drowning in floods. They are being electrocuted. They are left in the dark with the current going out. Whose fault is it? It should be said that it is the fault of individuals and systems. Meanwhile, an innovative scheme called Mission Kakatiya was launched in Telangana. The main objective of this scheme was the restoration of ponds. It worked well for a while. Why! It was stopped again. If this scheme continues unabated, the good weather of the past will return. Construction in low-lying areas of Andhra Pradesh has increased exponentially. Its cost is felt whenever floods occur. Governments need to be more clear about what kind of construction should be done in which area. There is a need to further follow the standards in terms of how much land should be allocated for independent houses and where apartments should be constructed. It is the responsibility of governments to act carefully and not give permissions haphazardly. Revenue is needed. At the same time, future planning is even more important. There should be radical changes in planning policies.

Congress is cheating people from all sections of society Former MLA of Parakala Challa Dharma Reddy - DasyamvinaYaBhaskar

Dayyala Rakesh Bhanu Direct Voice Bureau Chief warangal septem ber 1"Participating in a media conference organized at the Hanum akonda district BRS party office, former Challa Dharma Reddy said that Revanth Reddy... is afraid of KCR. The Congress government has cheated the people in the name of six guarantees. The Revanth government is conspiring on schemes like Rythu Bima, Kalyana Lakshmi. This government is not providing water to the farmers through Kalesh waram, but is drying up the crops. It is making farmers angry. It is causing problems to the farmers through Urea Up. We will fight on behalf of the people in the public sector until the promises are implemented. The Congress government is committing irregularities in the give and take method. The government's words do not match the actions it takes. It is doing divert politics by saying that it is impatient when BRS fights on the problems of the people. The Congress government has cheated the people by making promises in the elections and saying that they will fulfill every promise within 100 days of coming to power, and by writing bond papers and not implementing the promises even after 1000 days.. Revanth Reddy is expressing his insecurity by asking KCR to resign. Revanth Reddy is thinking about KCR every minute and is scared. The party leaders are working only under the direction of KCR, KTR and Harish Rao as the party president at the field level due to the failure of your government. This Congress government has cheated women, youth, unemployed and farmers in the name of six guarantees. Why did the farmer insurance started by KCR stop..? KCR is a farmer partisan, if a farmer dies due to this reason, the family Revanth Reddy is conspiring to stop the farmer insurance scheme by saying that if he provides Rs 5 lakh through the farmer insurance scheme, he will get a name for himself by not renewing the premium that ended on August 13. Who is conspiring to stop the Kalyan lakshmi scheme? The Congress party, which came to power promising to give gold worthless, could not answer the people, so the government is resorting to courts through some people with a conspiracy to remove the Kalyan lakshmi scheme. KCR made Telangana fertile by providing water on time through Kalesh waram, but this Revanth Reddy government is conspiring to dry up the crops by not providing water. At this time, the ponds that should be filled with water are going to be empty, the canals that should be full of water are empty. They are bringing up the urea that should be given on time and causing trouble to the farmers. They were angry that farmers had to move from one mandal to another through this app - The Congress party is committing illegal collections in the name of Indiramma's houses. They are cheating the people in a give and take method. In the coming days, the people will teach this government a suitable lesson. Apart from celebrating the permissions given and the foundation stone laid by the BRS government in Parakala constituency, this Congress government and the local MLA have done nothing for the development of Parakala constituency in these three years. In the coming days, we will stand up the Congress party and the Revanth Reddy government in the public sphere on behalf of the people, farmers, women, unemployed people and youth, he said.

Illegal FAR against Rahul Gandhi is proof of BJP's factional politics Telangana State Mahila Congress President Errabelli Swarna The protest rack Malicious attacks on Gandhi

Yamsani SAI Bureau Chief Warangal September 1: The illegal FIR registered against Rahul Gandhi should be withdrawn immediately. On behalf of the Telangana State Mahila Congress, we demand that an SC and ST atrocity case be registered and arrested immediately against the BJP and RSS activists who insulted Dalits in the name of purification in Haldwani. Our leaders, who stood against the vile BJP mentality of purifying the place where a Dalit sits and cried out for justice, should thwart the BJP conspiracy that is trying to strangle Rahul Gandhi, Telangana State Mahila Congress President Errabelli Swarna has called for Condemning the illegal FIR registered against Rahul Gandhi as per the orders of the All India Mahila Congress Committee and demanding action against BJP activists in Uttarakhand, today, the Mahila Congress leaders who were going to protest from Gandhi Bhavan under the auspices of the Telangana State Mahila Congress staged a peaceful protest demonstration in front of Gandhi Bhavan after the police stopped them. Speaking on the occasion, Errabelli Swarna said that our Congress National President Malli Karjun Kharge participated in a public meeting in Haldwani. The place where he was sitting was purified with Ganga water by BJP-RSS leaders. This is a shameful act! If a Dalit sits, does that place become impure? Is this your Hindutva? Is this your culture? This is not an insult to Kharge, but an insult to the Constitution of India and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. This was bravely done by our leader Rahul Gandhi. "Questioned. Demanded action against the accused. And what did the BJP government in Uttarakhand do? Instead of taking action against the accused, an FIR was registered against Rahul Gandhi, who spoke for justice. Is this democracy? Isn't this dictatorship A case was filed when Rahul Gandhi asked for a caste census, a case when he asked for reservations for our women, a case when he questioned Adani, who is looting the wealth of this country! Why? Because he is not afraid! He is standing up for the constitution of this country and for our self-respect.. That is why you are afraid of him! Today an FIR against Rahul Gandhi means an FIR against all of us tomorrow. The BJP wants us to be afraid. But we are not afraid. We are the descendants of Mahila Congress and Indira Gandhi. We will keep fighting. We, on behalf of the Telangana State Mahila Congress, demand that the illegal FIR registered against Rahul Gandhi should be withdrawn immediately and that an SC and ST atrocity case be registered and arrested against the BJP and RSS activists who insulted Dalits in the name of purification in Haldwani. BJP's Basti Is The Challenge Greater War

Dayyala Rakesh Bhanu
Direct Voice State Bureau Chief Hyderabad September 1"Despite declaring war on the outside, Kamal Nath's internal churning is an elusive strategy in an attempt to clash with the ruling party and all parties. The Greater Tri Corporation elections are a referendum for the BJP, say analysts. If the BJP wins a majority in these three seats, the strength that will increase by the time of the assembly elections will be a golden chance to prove that they are a political alternative to the Congress. The upcoming elections in Hyderabad metropolis are turning into a free final for the Telangana Bharatiya Janata Party, which says that power is its goal in the next general elections. No matter which leader of the party is moved, the discussion is on the greater elections. Although the cadre seems confident and determined to achieve this this time, it seems that some aspects are inevitably negative. In this process, the doubt is also haunting them. Political analysts are making it clear that withstanding the strategies and tactics of the ruling Congress party on one hand and the main opposition BRS on the other, it will not be as easy as it seems to be.The challenge is Basti Even though the party leaders are throwing out innovations, there is an incomprehensible churning inside. Brainstorming is currently underway in the context of following the challenges of overcoming the two main political parties in the state, including the adversities, obstacles, and economic aspects. Analysts are of the opinion that the Greater Tri Corporation elections are a referendum for the BJP, and if it achieves its goals and wins the mayoral seats, it has a good chance of winning the general elections to be held after 2028."in this context, the Bharatiya Janata Party has intensified its political focus on the elections to be held in the three corporations to be held in Greater Hyderabad. Along with the three major corporations under the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, the BJP high command is formulating a clear strategy to win the Greater Warangal Municipal Corporation, which is the heart of North Telangana, this time. Nitin Naveen has already toured for three days and a draft has been prepared in key meetings with the booth presidents and the state executive committee of the Greater Hyderabad, Cyberabad and Malkajgiri corporations. The problems here have been identified and reconciliation efforts between the leaders have also been completed.The BJP top leadership has finalized a clear blueprint for the implementation of strategies, funds and resource mobilization for this mega election campaign. The main objective of the BJP top leadership is to convert the huge vote-percentage that the party got in the Hyderabad and Warangal urban belt areas in the last parliamentary elections into seats at the field level.it seems that not only social media campaigns are being done within the GHMC, but also strong financial and The BJP leadership has already decided in this crucial meeting to identify candidates with manpower in Greater Hyderabad and Warangal and give them route passes, and to allocate resources in advance without delaying election expenses. It has quietly conducted internal surveys in the corporate sector.A clear report has been prepared on the performance of sitting corporators anti-incumbency among the people towards the ruling Congress, and the strength of the BRS cadre. Based on these survey reports, the BJP is determined to make a clean sweep great foresight regarding the candidates who will contest.The BJP, which will highlight the Congress's friendship with its politically sworn enemy, the Majlis-e-Ittehadul Muslimeen (MIM), intends to use the Hindutva card in the strongest possible way.

MIM, which is limited to the old basti. The BJP is planning to turn this into a sentiment among Hindu voters."With the notification of these greater elections likely to be announced in the next two to three months, there is excitement among BJP fans and

BJP leaders, alerted by the ultimatum sent by the national leadership, are moving forward with new activities considering this election as a matter of life and death. If the BJP wins a majority in these three seats.. there is a strong confidence in the saffron party that it will get a golden chance to prove that it is an alternative to the Congress in the 2028 assembly elections.BJP's Jung Siren for Greater Trishul Battle if the BJP does not win the elections to the three corporations, will the future be empty? The question is also haunting the party leaders. The next battle in Telangana politics is going to start in the metropolis of Hyderabad. In the Greater Hyderabad Municipal Corporation, the Congress government has repealed the old 1955 Act and divided the old greater city into three independent corporations. The number of divisions has been increased from 150 to 300 and everything is being prepared to hold elections.The Bharatiya Janata Party high command has decided to counter the Congress's Trident strategy and hoist the flag over Hyderabad. As part of this, senior leader Nitin Nabin Sinha, who recently took charge as the new national president of the BJP, recently spent a three-day long visit to Hyderabad and laid out the strategy.At the same time, he gave a strong warning to the state core committee leaders and gave them direction. Nitin Naveen gave a very clear message to the state leaders in his internal meetings. Urban areas, especially cosmopolitan cities like Hyderabad, have always been strong strongholds for the BJP, and winning MP seats around Hyderabad in the Lok Sabha elections is not enough. If we do not show our strength in the elections of these three corporations, BJP's dream of coming to power in Telangana will remain just a dream in the future, he warned. He warned that the consequences would be severe if the internal differences between the leaders were not put aside and the party did not fight together. Congress' political sketch behind the three-part strategy The ruling Congress party's political sketch is visible behind the division of Greater Hyderabad, which has been a joint entity for decades. Old City-Hyderabad, Cyberabad with its IT corridor and Malkajgiri, where the middle class is predominant... Nitin Naveen made it clear that different strategies are needed for these three.

At a media conference at Bus Bhavan“Minister Ponnamm Prabhakar Transport and BC Welfare

Direct Voice State Bureau Chief Hyderabad September 1' Marking 1,000 days of the 'Praja Palana' People's Governance administration in Telangana, we are highlighting the achievements and progress of the Transport Department and RTC. Within 48 hours of assuming office, we launched free bus travel for women on RTC buses under the 'Mahalakshmi' scheme. So far, 347.36 crore women have availed of free travel. Women have saved ₹1,216.7 crore; surveys indicate that women are achieving economic growth and benefiting in numerous ways. For the first time in the country, women have been made owners of 600 buses; we are paying an EMI of ₹69,468 per bus, amounting to ₹4 crore monthly, with a total of ₹29.31 crore paid to date. Bus occupancy has risen from 67% in the past to 89% now. Initiatives include the introduction of EV buses, new recruitments, the procurement of new buses, and providing employment to those previously removed from service. We purchased 2,932 new buses, and 1,024 electric buses are operating successfully; another 2,200 new electric buses are set to hit the roads in Hyderabad. We have completed 1,424 compassionate appointments. RTC serves as a lifeline for the poor much like the Railways are the lifeline of the nation. Through the co-ordination of MMTS, Metro, and RTC, we are ensuring last-mile connectivity. Tickets are being issued via electronic payment/ticketing machines. A specialty hospital has been developed. We granted two PRC (Pay Revision Commission) awards and five DA (Dearness Allowance) installments to RTC employees; there are no pending DA arrears. We are conducting union elections, after which we will complete the merger process. Revolutionary changes are taking place in the RTC; we are operating electric buses in Hyderabad under the PM-eBus Sewa scheme. Approximately 244 employees who had been removed from service were reinstated through a special IAS committee. We introduced an EV policy to reduce pollution in Hyderabad and provided tax exemptions worth ₹1,400 crore. We are modernizing bus stations and have established depots at Peddapalli and Eturu Nagaram. CCS arrears were reduced from ₹1,096 crore to ₹939 crore. PF arrears were reduced from ₹2,108 crore to ₹1,710 crore. SRBS and SBT arrears were brought down from ₹513 crore to ₹485 crore. We issued notifications for 4,538 jobs; the recruitment process for 1,000 drivers and 743 'Shramik' (support staff) posts is complete, and appointment letters will be handed over by the Chief Minister in the coming months. The government has approved the recruitment of 1,500 conductors. To ensure complete transparency and prevent any errors, we conducted the recruitment process through the Police Department. We are retrofitting 240 diesel buses, and financial assistance of ₹1.50 lakh is being provided for retrofitting auto-rickshaws in Hyderabad. The fact that the RTC holds a prominent position in the country is a testament to the hard work of the drivers and conductors working at the grassroots level. We are modernizing bus stations for the Godavari Pushkaralu and will operate bus services; we successfully ran buses for the Medaram Jatara. To eliminate harassment within the RTC, the Transport Department has removed check-posts and increased the number of enforcement teams in the district. We transitioned from 'TS' to 'TG' and implemented the 'Vahan' and 'Sarathi' systems, as well as the vehicle scrappage policy—Telangana was the only state that had not adopted 'Vahan' and 'Sarathi' over the last decade, but we have now done so following the Chief Minister's directives. We are launching automated driving tests. We have recruited 113 AMVIs, 50 constables, 20 junior assistants, and 4 MVIs for the Transport Department. We are conducting road safety programs and have undertaken various initiatives such as 'Arrive Alive' in collaboration with the Police Department. We are also implementing the 'Rahaveer' scheme, which ensures that accident victims are immediately admitted to a hospital. Under the leadership of Chief Minister Revanth Reddy, the Deputy CM is ensuring the timely sanction of necessary funds. We organized a meeting with public representatives from all districts while the Legislative Assembly was in session, and they expressed great satisfaction; however, we are introducing bus services wherever public representatives request new routes. We are operating buses on 370 new routes in Hyderabad and extending services to rural areas that previously lacked bus connectivity. The RTC transport department is emerging as number one in the country; thanks to the hard work of our staff and the performance of our officials, the RTC will continue to develop further. We have instituted a monthly grievance redressal mechanism for workers on Tuesdays to resolve their issues. We will form a committee comprising officials and representatives elected from RTC labor unions to complete the merger process, taking measures to avoid the complications that arose in Andhra Pradesh. We are committed to the welfare of RTC workers while simultaneously driving the organization's progress. We are moving forward with legislation to ensure that the road safety cess is utilized specifically for road safety purposes, and we have implemented numerous reforms within the transport department. We will amicably resolve issues related to the state bifurcation between the two states. Responding to requests for women's safety during night travel, we have already introduced night bus services on select routes in Hyderabad.

Water Bombs Explode In The Cold Himalayas

Dayyala Rakesh Bhanu
State Bureau Hyderabad
September 14 "The Himalayas are the lifeblood of the Indian subcontinent. These mountain ranges are the source of many rivers like the Ganges, Yamuna, Brahmaputra, Kosi, Gandak, Teesta. However, climate change, rapid melting of glaciers, heavy rains, landslides, and earthquakes are now turning the Himalayas into a center of natural disasters. In particular, there is a concern that the lakes formed by the melting of glaciers (glacial lakes) will become 'water bombs' that will cause massive floods in the future. As a glacier retreats, water collects in front of or around it and forms a lake. Under normal circumstances, natural barriers such as ice, rocks, and soil hold back the water. However, if those barriers weaken or break, the water in the lake suddenly rushes down stream. This is called a glacial lake outburst flood (GLF). Then, along with the water, mud, rocks, and soil, the downstream areas are flooded at great speed. The flow of rivers can change in a matter of hours. The recent reports of glacier-related flooding in the Bhotekoshi and Trishuli rivers along the Nepal-Tibet border are a reminder of this threat. Heavy rains, coupled with the formation of a temporary lake near the river's source in Tibet, have reportedly caused the water level in the Bhotekoshi river to rise. This development has forced authorities to issue a state of alert in several parts of central Nepal. Natural disasters are not the only problem. Indiscriminate construction in mountainous areas, along with the construction of houses, roads and infrastructure along river channels, are adding to the damage. India is no different. According to experts from the National Disaster Management Authority, there are an estimated 28,000 glacial lakes in 11 river basins in the Indian Himalayas. Of these, 7,500 are reported to be within Indian territory. The Ganges river basin alone is said to have over 4,700 glacial lakes. Of these, 195-200 lakes have been identified as highly hazardous, officials said. These figures clearly indicate the scale of the problem. The threat is not limited to the mountainous regions. If a large-scale GLOF occurs in the Sikkim or Nepal Himalayas, floodwaters are likely to reach the lower plains through rivers like Kosi, Gandak and Teesta. Areas like Supal, Saharsa, Madhubani and Champaran in North Bihar as well as Jalpaiguri, Siliguri and Darjeeling Terai regions in North Bengal are also likely to be affected. This means that developments in the Himalayas can affect settlements hundreds of kilometres away." Therefore, the 'post-disaster response' approach to hazardous lakes is no longer sufficient. The size, water level, and surrounding geological changes of lakes should be continuously monitored through satellites. Automatic water level, temperature, and pressure sensors should be installed at high-risk lakes. Scientific engineering measures such as check dams, controlled drainage, and water diversion should be taken according to the conditions. More importantly, early warning systems must reach local people. Sirens, mobile alerts, village-level disaster plans, and evacuation routes must be in place in advance. Strict control of new construction in risk areas is also essential. The goal of setting up an automatic early warning sensor network at high-risk lakes in the next two years must be implemented rapidly. It is time to see the Himalayas not just as a source of water, but as a highly sensitive ecosystem. Not every one of the thousands of lakes is a 'water bomb'. But if a few dangerous lakes explode, the impact will be unimaginable. That is why it is important to strike a balance between development and environmental security, expand scientific monitoring, and strengthen early warning systems. It is necessary to do so. For the safety of lives, property, and future generations. Compulsory obligation.

Chief Warangal – September 1: Officials have taken a key decision regarding the stretch of Hunter Road in Hanamkonda specifically between Adalat Junction and Neelima Junction aimed at controlling traffic congestion and ensuring the safe movement of students. Given the high concentration of schools and colleges along this route, a large number of students and motorists commute here daily. Measures are being implemented to address the issues of frequent accidents and traffic congestion. Warangal Police Commissioner N Swetha (IPS), Municipal Commissioner Venkana, and officials from the Roads & Buildings (R&B) Department inspected the site on Hunter Road. Officials believe that closing the median opening will curb unsafe practices such as motorists taking arbitrary U-turns or making sudden changes in direction on the road. They stated that this measure would help reduce the risk of accidents, particularly near educational institutions during peak student commuting hours. Traffic ACP Satyanarayana appealed to the residents and motorists of Warangal to take note of this change and cooperate with the traffic police. He advised motorists to follow the instructions of traffic personnel and utilize alternative routes. Motorists have been urged to exercise caution on Hunter Road particularly regarding students and pedestrians and to drive responsibly by adhering to speed limits and traffic regulations. Officials will assess traffic conditions following the experimental closure of the median opening. They stated that necessary further measures would be taken to ensure the public does not face any inconvenience.

Congress Party Is like An Ocean, It Remains Stable No Matter How Much New water comes in To make Rahul Gandhi the Prime Minister, the Congress party must be strengthened from the village level

Dayyala Rakesh Bhanu
Direct Voice Bureau
Chief Jangoan September 11
“The party encourages only those who work for the people and the party with discipline. Even if there are those who criticize their own party, the BJP party, which is in power at the center, is inviting leaders of other parties to strengthen the party. Put aside the egos of being great and senior. If Rahul Gandhi is to be made the Prime Minister, everyone should be included and efforts should be made to strengthen the party. The only goal is to hoist the Congress party flag in Station Ghanpur constituency in the 2029 elections. Sarpanch, Mandal and Grama party presidents should be included. We should also change according to the changing politics. There is no point in ignoring mistakes while staying in the party. There will be a huge attack on the Congress government and Chief Minister Revanth Reddy. The false propaganda being spread on social media should be strongly refuted. If KCR, KTR and Harish Rao have any sense of manhood, they should answer the allegations made by Kavitha. They say that they have committed corruption worth lakhs of crores and will protest against the Congress government today without shame. Kalvakuntla Kavitha alleges that they are still counting the money they earned illegally while in power. Former Deputy Chief Minister and Station Ghanpur MLA Kadiyam Srihari demanded that Kavitha should answer the allegations and protest. Former Deputy Chief Minister and Station Ghanpur MLA Kadiyam Srihari demanded that Kavitha should answer the allegations made by Kavitha and protest against Kavitha. Warangal Member of Parliament Dr. Kadiyam Kavva and MLA Kadiyam Srihari attended the introductory program of Jafargad Mandal, Village and Affiliated Committees and the Mandal Wide Level Meeting organized at Renuka Function Hall in Thimmampeta, Jafargad Mandal. Speaking on this occasion, MLA Kadiyam Srihari said that BRS has called for protests across the state against the 1000-day rule of the Congress government. He said that before protesting against the Congress government, Kalva kuntla Kavitha would make serious allegations against BRS. He said that the money earned illegally while in power is still being counted and that Harish Rao's indiscipline is the reason for the decline of Kalesh waram. He alleged that lakhs of crores of corruption were committed during the BRS rule and farmhoususes and palaces were built. He expressed anger that today, with the fear of losing power, they are trying to mislead the people by spreading false news about the Congress government to cover up their mistakes. He questioned why they are protesting against the Congress government. Is it because Indiramma made the poor's own house art with the houses...? Is it because they are feeding the poor with small rice...? Along with agriculture, are we giving 200 units of free electricity to the house...? Is it because we are providing free bus travel to women.... Are we giving new ration cards, new pensions? Is it because we are giving loan waiver, farmer assurance, bonus to Sannas..? They demanded that the people be told what they are protesting for. They accused the BJP government in power at the Center of trying to dilute the rights granted to the people by the Constitution. They said that if we want to protect our rights, the Congress party should come to power and Rahul Gandhi should become the Prime Minister. They revealed that social justice, democracy and the Constitution will be protected only because of the Congress party. For this, they called on every Congress worker to work to strengthen the Congress party from today itself. They suggested that if Rahul Gandhi is to be made the Prime Minister, the party should be strengthened from the village level. They said that everyone should put aside the differences of new and old in the party and work together as members of one family. He said that the Congress party is like an ocean, new water keeps coming in and old water keeps going out, but in any case, the ocean will remain stable. He suggested that the newly elected Mandal Gram Party Presidents and Sarpanchuls should include everyone. He made it clear that what the Congress party needs is to meet those who work for the people and the party with discipline. He said that the BJP in power at the Center also invites and respects leaders of other parties to strengthen the party. He said that we, who want to come to power, should also invite those who are among the people and those who work for the party. He said that we should put aside the ego of saying that I am great and I am senior. He said that he is working with the aim of hoisting the Congress party flag in the Station Ghanpur constituency in the 2029 elections. He said that he is working towards that goal every day and suggested that every Congress worker should work in the same way. He revealed that only when he works like that, Revanth Reddy will become the Chief Minister of the state for the second time and the Congress party will come to power again. He said that the criticisms made by the opposition parties on the Congress government and the party should be strongly refuted. He said that development works worth Rs 1 crore to Rs 5 crore have been done in every village in Jafargad mandal. He suggested that the development and welfare programs of the government should be taken to the people in a strong manner. He warned that he does not know everything about what is happening in every village in the constituency and who is doing what, but he warned that he does not know anything except that he has seen and heard some things. He made it clear that he will not ignore those who work against the party while being in the party. He suggested that the list of beneficiaries of Indiramma houses as per Booth 10 should be submitted to the village by September 15 along with proposals for development works worth Rs 10 to 25 lakhs. He once again called on everyone to work together as the only agenda in the coming days is to strengthen the Congress party. PACS Chairman Teegala Karunakar Rao, Mandal Party President Nukala Ilayya, District Committee General Secretaries Anna Boina Bikshapathi, Illandula Baby Srinivas, Block Congress President Manchala Yellayya, affiliated association presidents, sarpanches, newly elected village party presidents, Mandal Congress Party leaders, activists, cluster in-charges, BLAs, Indira Mamma Committee members, leaders, activists and others participated in the program.
